

Gerow on All-State Teams

Recognition for Larry Gerow, of the Beaverton Beavers, was revealed this week with the announcement of two Class C all-state football squads.

Larry was chosen at a guard position by Associated Press and United Press International news services and on several other all-state teams he won honorable mention. Gerow was an all-conference and all-area selection at a tackle position in earlier mythical teams named.