Beaverton takes 14th out of 15

HARRISON — The Beaverton Beavers defeated Harrison in Jack Pine action Tuesday night, in a game that saw a freak collision that left one player from each side with minor injuries. The Beavers took the victory by a score of 70-61.

The injuries occurred to Beaverton's Emory Stubbs and Harrison's Joe Brown, who collided early in the game. Stubbs, sporting a butterfly patch over his eye, stayed in the game to earn six points, while Brown needed four stitches on the inside of his eye-lid before coming back to score five points.

The game began slowly, as the Beavers bested Harrison by one point in the first quarter. In the second quarter, however, Beaverton picked up the pace, gaining an 11-point lead by the end of the half.

Harrison staged a comeback in the third period, outscoring Beaverton by seven points. The Beavers fired up again in the final period, and took the victory.

The win leaves the Beavers 10-1 in the league, and 14-1 overall. Harrison is now 6-5 in Jack Pine play, and 9-7 in general action.

Doyle Durkee led in the Beaverton scoring, netting 24 points. Ken Neighbors was the only other Beaver in double figures with 11 points.

For Harrison, Jim Yost set the pace, claiming 27 points before fouling out in the fourth quarter. Yost scored 19 of his points in the first half, when his teammates were only able to add six to his efforts.

Robyn Huber scored 14 points for Harrison. Mark Smith felt the pressure of the Beaverton defense, as the Jack Pine scoring standout was held to just six points.

Durkee's 34 points helps Beaverton sew up title

Doyle Durkee's 34 points paced Beaverton to its 11th Jack Pine Conference win, an 83-76 triumph over Evart.

The win, sixth straight for the Beavers, was enough to clinch the conference championship.

In other conference games, Sanford-Meridian beat Farwell, 65-52; Harrison swept past Coleman, 72-67, and Houghton Lake edged Roscommon, 55-53.

Randy Sroufe hit 18 points for the Beavers and Jeff Roehrs 13 as Beaverton pulled out to a six-point first-period lead and held on to it throughout the contest.

Dave Musser led Evart with 31 points, while Neil Pritchard hit 17 and Keith Nichols 12.

Van Nortwick led all scorers with 20 points, as well as pulling down nine rebounds. Bill Fillmore chipped in with 14 points and 11 caroms while Ron Cay scored 11 points.

Rob Robbins was the Farwell's leading scorer with 10 points.

The Mustangs shot an even 50 percent from the floor throughout the contest while Farwell finished up with 20 of 62 of its shots in the hoop for 32 percent.

Farwell's only statistical edge was on the boards — the Eagles outrebounded the Mustangs 45-26.

The win upped Meridian's conference mark to 4-8 while Farwell drops to 2-10, last place in the conference.

HARRISON 72, COLEMAN 67

Coleman kept close tabs on the Hornets through four periods of regulation play but let the game slip away during the overtime period.

The Comets gave Harrison a second chance in the extra stanza by missing three one-and-one situations in the last few minutes of the fourth quarter — and their 24 fouls did not help, either.

Harrison committed only 11 fouls, but picked up 20 points at the free throw line — more than the winning margin.

The game, coupled with Roscommon's 55-53 loss to Houghton Lake, creates a three-way tie for second place in the conference between Roscommon, Coleman and Harrison.
